PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

It is my pleasure to invite all members and delegates to the BASO Skills Day on behalf of the Trainees Council and BASO National Committee.

We are delighted to present a dedicated day concentrating on skills for trainees and revalidation for consultants in addition to focused material and sessions throughout the conference programme. The overall theme of the BASO 2019 conference is "Standing together for Cancer Surgery" and as such we have seen the introduction of the BASO Trainees Audit/Quality Improvement Project Prize to highlight the work that is undertaken to improve patient care.

This year we are running the Skills Day with the kind support and collaboration of the Royal College of Surgeons of England, who have been just amazing. We are also grateful for the collaboration with the Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh in supporting the Human Factors: Non-Technical Skills for Surgeons by delivering these sessions through the use of their expert faculty and material. We are grateful for the collaboration with the GMC in supporting the Debate Session: "This house believes Credentialing is good for doctors and patients" and we are pleased to welcome the GMC Medical Director and Director of Education and Standards.

The day is split into five parts, with training in the morning on Human factors, followed by our popular "speed mentoring session" and debate session on the current hot topic of Credentialing. We are providing training about the how to present yourself well in different situations and how to approach the interviews using the consultant interview as an example. The meeting concludes with the oral presentations for the prize sessions and awarding of the prizes. It looks to be a very busy and productive day.

Lastly, may I also take this opportunity to invite you and encourage you to become a member of BASO Trainees (rates start from £10 for basic membership), which will provides you a discounted rate for the meetings and opportunity to apply for the Trainees council. As a Trainee member you will also receive a discount for the BASO ~ ACS Scientific Conference and the drinks reception and annual dinner on the 17th November 2018, which will be a great way to network and meet colleagues that are peers and seniors.

I look forward to meeting you all at the forthcoming conference, please make an effort to talk to me if you would like to be more involved with the organisation.

Dr Afsana Elanko President BASO Trainees

BASO~ACS GRANTS AND FELLOWSHIPS

BASO~ACS (NIHR) Project Grant 2020

Applications are now invited for the BASO~ the Association for Cancer Surgery project grant, awarded to assist surgeons to undertake research projects related to surgical or surgically linked cancer care.

BASO – ACS is an NIHR non-commercial Partner. Research studies funded through our 'Project Grant' award scheme are eligible for consideration for NIHR Clinical Research Network support and inclusion in the Central Portfolio Management System (CPMS). Applications are sought for discrete projects such as projects seeking funding for the initial development of clinical trials, studies aimed at initial data collection to inform the design of a future trial or systematic reviews. Subject to satisfactory applications, one to three awards up to the total value of £6,000 will be made. Normally the award will be for one academic year.

Message from BASO~ACS Honorary Secretary

It is my great pleasure to welcome you to 2019 BASO Annual Scientific Meeting (16th-18th Nov) at the Law Society, London. This year, we have an excellent programme which will be facilitated by National and International experts in the field of cancer surgery. Most interestingly you will hear the Presidents of the UK Royal Colleges talking to the audience.

The meeting will provide trainees with the opportunity to present their work to Senior Surgical Consultants and their peers and compete for the numerous prizes which will be on offer for the best presentations in selected categories. At the BASO Skills Day, trainees will be provided with the opportunity to participate in human factors workshops and sessions on research grants applications and preparing for consultant interviews.

BASO is supporting research and academic endeavours in a number of ways: our partnership with NIHR makes us in a unique position with our competitive BASO-NIHR grants, our co-ownership of the EJSO (with our sister organisation ESSO) goes from strength to strength with the impact factor reaching 3.379 this year.

Finally, we hope that you will join BASO to be a part of a growing community of cancer surgeons and trainees.

Best Wishes

Mr Zaed Hamady Hon. Secretary BASO~ACS

Consultant Hepatobiliary, Pancreatic and Laparoscopic Surgeon, University Hospital Southampton NHS FT

EUROPEAN JOURNAL OF SURGICAL ONCOLOGY

Our in-house Journal, 'The European Journal of Surgical Oncology (EJSO),' aims to educate and inform about the many subspecialty disciplines of cancer surgery. The EJSO publishes original scientific articles, reviews, clinical trials, news and views, and other relevant materials; and has the worldwide readership. The Journal continues to go from strength to strength, and provide a valuable income for BASO .

The current impact factor is at 3.379, and the Journal was accessed over 460,000 times in 2018. Last year, over 1300 manuscripts were submitted for consideration of publication and the EJSO is on course to beat it this year. This is the highest number ever received in a year. As in previous years, the majority of submissions were original research articles, but there was an increasing number of review articles, short reports, and editorials. The average turnaround time for manuscripts is less than seven weeks, making it a very attractive Journal for members to submit their papers.

Membership of BASO~ACS includes the subscription to the EJSO.

Best wishes,

Mr Michael Shackcloth BASO~ACS EJSO Representative Consultant Thoracic Surgeon Liverpool Heart and Chest Hospital

This is a prestigious prize awarded only once a decade. The award was given in recognition of the work that Afsana has done for both undergraduate and postgraduate medical education. The oration was given by Professor Robert Kirby, President of BASO~ACS. Other members of the National Council were in attendance to support her.

SILVER SCALPEL AWARD 2019 PRESENTED TO BASO TRUSTEE

Mr Edmund Leung, BASO~ACS Trustee, is awarded the 2019 Silver Scalpel Prize. There were so many positive descriptions by his colleagues and trainees. His trainees described him as a selfless trainer who is willing to dedicate time to all trainees, health professionals and fulfil his numerous clinical roles, as well as being a father and husband. Mr Leung sits on the National Advisory Committee for Surgical Oncology. He is leading the educational objectives of the committee in arranging MRCS/FRCS and cadaveric courses for all level of trainees. His knowledge and experience are evident in the Colorectal MDT discussions, where his decisions and/or arguments are evidence-based and always encompass a holistic patient approach. His colleagues value his opinion on challenging cases.

Mr Leung is a recognised laparoscopic trainer. Under his stewardship, staff grade surgeons at the Hereford County Hospital have benefitted from intense laparoscopic colorectal surgery and endoscopy training. Mr Leung's time commitment and dedication to junior colleagues is far superior than that demonstrated by his colleagues. He has also supported the personal development of the surgical department's first and only Physician's Associate, such that the Physician's Associate has been inspired to apply to medical school in the pursuit of a surgical career! Mr Leung's dedication to training also extends to theatre staff and ward nurses. Mr Leung was described as an "approachable, down-to-earth individual who is admired by his medical and allied health. professional colleagues". We look forward to Mr Leung using his skills in the delivery of the BASO educational activities.
